From the President

Dear fellows,

What a busy Rotary week! We had a tremendous showing at last week’s club assembly where there were spirited discussions from our members on everything from our meeting format through to our various service projects and awards nights. We plan to continue in the light of our predecessors and fine tune areas where appropriate.

Our board met & discussed numerous new service projects all in the pipeline. Stay tuned as details to be announced in the coming weeks. We have an array of both domestic and international projects, plenty of opportunities for our members to get involved, so don’t hesitate to please speak to one of our directors about how you can get involved. In addition, if you have any ideas on a worthwhile project, please do not hesitate to present the idea to the relevant service director.

Yours in Rotary,

Arie Pappas

Last week's event: Club Assembly

This week's speaker: Trudy Ho

Trudy works for Australian Health Humanitarian Aid. AHHA is a NFP with the vision to "To provide diverse charitable and humanitarian services to relieve human suffering and improve the quality of life of those in need with compassionate acts."

Every year AHHA organise field trips to Vietnam and/or Cambodia to provide Australian standard cataract surgeries, eye care, medical check-ups and dental treatments to special needs. They provide training to local students and doctors with conferences, workshops and wet labs.
