From the President

Dear fellows,

I am feeling refreshed and invigorated following our family European vacation. I’m happy to be back and looking forward to the year ahead.

Many thanks to Janelle for steering the ship during my absence, training no doubt for a future day.

My primary goal this year is to focus on making our weekly meetings a fun and interesting experience. Happy meetings will be reflected in our member’s attendance, engagement and ultimately club success.

We are all clearly aware of the challenges that Rotary faces as an organisation. At this week’s meeting we have our Club Assembly, where we will be asking ourselves some challenging questions to the way forward. Your involvement and feedback are crucial so I ask you all for your attendance with an open heart and mind.

I feel fortunate to be part of such a great club steeped in history with outstanding members who have achieved great things. I look forward to this continuance of this tradition.

Yours in Rotary,

Arie Pappas
